Catered living is an independent lifestyle with a touch of community and service. Our residents live independently, but have the option to join in community events, meals, and recreational activities. A variety of services are offered, allowing residents to simplify their lives and continue to live independently.

Our independent living community offers spacious one or two bedroom apartments with or without a private patio. Each apartment features a full kitchen, private bath, spacious closets, laundry hook-ups, and our emergency response system. As we age, one of the things that lets us keep living our lives in a vibrant, meaningful way is the consistency of both our surroundings and the people with whom we interact each day. Goldfinch Estates offers communities with a broad range of assistance to our residents. This way, they always maintain a constant group of friends and a familiar home that they know and trust.
